LWMS: In the back of Church is box for LWMS. We will be holding a special offering for this weekend and next. The monies will go for one foreign mission and one home mission.

We're Starting Bible Classes Today! We will hold a half hour Bible class downstairs in church after each of our services. You are welcome and encouraged to attend. We will observe whatever the current mandates are and we are going to ask you to clean surfaces at the end of class.

Politics is driving me crazy! This election season is as chaotic as any that we can remember. Talk and drama about the upcoming presidential election are hot. Social media tensions are rising, loved ones are dividing along party lines, and candidates are slinging mud at their opponents. In response, frustrated Christians often wonder what's happening to America and where God is in the confusion. We're going to find a calm, biblical approach to politics. Today, we'll look at how God has set up the government as his instrument of order and how we're supposed to relate to it. We'll look at the two kingdoms, the separation between church and state, and our messy political world. It's going to be great! We'll meet in the church basement after both Sunday morning services. On the back table in church we have Prayers booklets for the election year, please feel free to take one.

Online Survey: At the end of the Daily Devotions that are sent out (via email and on our website) have been links to 3 different surveys regarding Trunk or Treat, Christmas for Kids and next years Living Nativity. Thank you all for your input! We are currently waiting to see what the City is going to do and when before deciding on Trinity's plans for Trunk or Treating. To the members that answered YES to any of the questions, please refill out surveys so we have your names and email addresses to contact you at.
