Prayer of the Day

P: Let us pray.

Mercifully grant, O God, that your Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts, for without your help we are unable to please you; through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.

Old Testament Lesson

Our Old Testament Lesson displays Moses' humility and passion for the Lord's work again. He was thrilled that people were receiving gifts from the Lord, even though it made Joshua jealous for Moses' honor. Do we marvel and give thanks for the gifts that God has given to others? Are we grateful for the gifts he give us? Or do we grumble that no one properly marvels at how gifted we are or sufficiently appreciates the service we render? Let's celebrate the work God does among us, no matter who gets the credit!

Numbers 11:16, 24-29 (EHV)

<sup>16</sup> So the LORD said to Moses, "Gather seventy men from the elders of Israel for me, men whom you know to be elders and officers for the people. Take them to the Tent of Meeting and make them stand there with you."

<sup>24</sup> Moses went out and told the people the LORD's words. He gathered seventy men from the elders of the people and had them stand all around the tent. <sup>25</sup> The LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to him. He took from the Spirit that was on Moses and put it on the seventy elders. When the Spirit rested on them, they prophesied, but they did not do it again.

<sup>26</sup> Two men, however, remained in the camp. The name of one was Eldad, and the name of the other was Medad. They were listed among the elders, but they had not gone out to the tent. The Spirit rested on them, and they prophesied back in the camp. <sup>27</sup> A young man ran and reported this to Moses. He said, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp!”

<sup>28</sup> Joshua son of Nun, Moses’ aide from his youth, answered, “My lord Moses, stop them!”

<sup>29</sup> Moses said to him, “Are you jealous for my sake? If only all of the LORD’s people were prophets so that the LORD would put his Spirit on them!”

Epistle Lesson

Our Epistle lessons shows the dedication and the clarity of Paul's faith. Paul served wholeheartedly and trusted God no matter what. It didn't matter that he was in jail if God's work was being done. It didn't matter that people were causing him trouble as long as the Gospel was reaching people. Paul rejoiced in God's salvation and God's work. Let's rejoice that God's work is being done and find a way to be part of it

Philippians 1:12-18 (EHV)

<sup>12</sup> I want you to know, brothers, that the things which happened to me actually took place to advance the gospel. <sup>13</sup> And so it has become clear throughout the whole palace guard and to all the rest, that I am in chains because of Christ. <sup>14</sup> And, through my chains, the majority of the brothers in the Lord have become much more confident about daring to speak the word of God fearlessly. <sup>15</sup> Some preach Christ out of envy and rivalry, and others out of good will. <sup>16</sup> The latter do so out of love, knowing that I am placed here for the defense of the gospel. <sup>17</sup> The former proclaim Christ out of selfish ambition, not sincerely, but thinking they can cause trouble for me while I am in chains. <sup>18</sup> What does it matter? Only this, that in every way, whether for outward appearance or for the truth, Christ is being proclaimed, and in this I rejoice.

Yes, and I will continue to rejoice,

Verse of the Day

Alleluia. At the name of Jesus every knee should bow, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Alleluia.

Gospel Lesson

Jesus' disciples were envious because they were concerned about earthly honor instead of forgiveness and salvation. There is powerful law in Jesus' words. Jesus tells us to get rid of anything, no matter how precious, if it gets in the way of salvation. If our hand actually causes us to sin, we're better off without it. But our hands don't cause sin; our hearts and our minds do. All we can do is cry, "God be merciful to me, a sinner!"

The only real cure is the forgiveness that Jesus won on the cross. We ask God to help us live by faith, so we will be the salt of the earth.

Mark 9:38-50 (EHV)

<sup>38</sup> John said to him, “Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name. We tried to stop him, because he was not following us.”

<sup>39</sup> But Jesus said, “Do not try to stop him, because no one who does a miracle in my name will be able soon afterward to speak evil about me. <sup>40</sup> Whoever is not against us is for us. <sup>41</sup> Amen I tell you: Whoever gives you a cup of water to drink in my name, because you belong to Christ, will certainly not lose his reward.

<sup>42</sup> “Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to fall into sin, it would be better for him if he were thrown into the sea with a large millstone hung around his neck. <sup>43</sup> If your hand causes you to fall into sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life maimed, than to have two hands and go into hell, into the unquenchable fire, <sup>44</sup> ‘where their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched.’ <sup>45</sup> If your foot causes you to fall into sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life lame, than to have two feet and be thrown into hell, <sup>46</sup> ‘where their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched.’ <sup>47</sup> If your eye causes you to fall into sin, pluck it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye, than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell, <sup>48</sup> ‘where their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched.’ <sup>49</sup> For everyone will be salted with fire. <sup>50</sup> Salt is good. But if the salt loses its flavor, how will you make it salty again? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another.”
