PRAYER OF THE DAY PG. 29

P: Let us pray.

Almighty God and Savior, you have set the final day and hour when we shall be delivered from this world of sin and death. Keep us ever watchful for the coming of your Son that we may sit with him and all your holy ones at the marriage feast in heaven; through your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.

Old Testament Lesson

As times of trouble and distress increase, God has not forgotten us. He sends his angels to stand guard over us. And, amid all the stresses, demands, dangers, and tumult in this world, only one thing really matters: Is our name written in the book of Life? In the end, we will rise, some to shame, others to glory and life. It is our privilege and our duty to lead as many as we can to life.

Daniel 12:1–3 (EHV)

¹Then at that time, Michael, the great prince who stands over your people, will arise. There will be a time of distress that has not happened from the first time that there was a nation until that time. At that time your people will be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book. ²Many who are sleeping in the dusty ground will awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame, to everlasting contempt. ³Those who have insight will shine like the brightness of the sky, and those who bring many to righteousness will shine like the stars forever and ever.

PSALM 118..... PG. 108

We continue our worship by singing Psalm 118.

This psalm is a song of pure praise and thanksgiving.

God is our salvation, so we will live! This is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad in it! The music for this psalm is on page 108 in the front of your hymnal.

Epistle Lesson

When death appears where can we go for comfort or protection or hope? No human strength or intelligence has any power over death. We cannot stop it. We cannot cure it. We cannot beat it.

But our Savior rose from the dead and conquered death! God brings all believers through death directly into his presence. Right now, every believer who has fallen asleep in death is at home in heaven with Jesus. On the Last Day he will bring all of his children, those who have passed and those who are still here, together to with him forever.

Let's encourage each other! Christ is risen! He is risen indeed!! He is with us here. He is with us now. And he will bring us all home.

1 Thessalonians 4:13–18 (EHV)

¹³We do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, about those who have fallen asleep, so that you do not grieve in the same way as the others, who have no hope. ¹⁴Indeed, if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, then in the same way we also believe that God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep through Jesus.

¹⁵In fact, we tell you this by the word of the Lord: We who are alive and left until the coming of the Lord will certainly not go on ahead of those who have fallen asleep. ¹⁶For the Lord himself will come down from heaven with a loud command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet call of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. ¹⁷Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up in the clouds together with them, to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will always be with the Lord. ¹⁸Therefore, encourage one another with these words.

VERSE OF THE DAY

Alleluia. They are before the throne of God and serve him day and night in his temple. Alleluia.

C: (sung) Alleluia!

Out of respect for the directly quoted words of our Savior please rise for the reading of the Gospel.

Gospel Lesson

It doesn't look like the world is getting any better. Suffering, violence, division, and dissension are growing. There is war and greed, persecution and betrayal. Jesus warned us that the world will be in distress until the end of days. We look forward to the day Jesus returns to rescue us. After the days of distress, Judgment Day will come. Jesus will return. He will send his angels to gather us from ends of the earth to the ends of the heavens. We will all stand together in his glory to be welcomed home forever.

Mark 13:24–27 (EHV)

²⁴“But after that distress in those days, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light. ²⁵The stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken. ²⁶Then you will see the Son of Man coming on clouds with great power and glory. ²⁷At that time he will send out his angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the farthest end of the earth to the farthest end of the sky.

TRINITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Sunday Morning Bible Study: God's people want to tell others about the peace, joy and forgiveness they have in Jesus. But many Christians are unsure how to do this. Join us as we learn some simple, practical ways to Join us today after worship.

Small Group Bible Study - Our Small Group Bible studies have started.

1. Reading through Genesis ~ led by Pastor Sonnemann, is Monday at 2:00pm, at Donna Behnke's house (703 Elizabeth Ave., Marinette). God's very first book, teaching us the foundations of reality and life.

2. Baptism, led by Pastor Tesch, is Thursday at 6:00pm, at Joan Hetcher's house (N1833 Dahl Road, Marinette). Baptism is the first miracle that most of us experience. What a treasure Baptism is! We'll deepen our understanding of what Baptism is and learn to appreciate its many blessings.

3. Ruth, led and hosted by Liz Broring, will be at 6:00pm, every other Wednesday in her home (1708 17th Ave, Meno). This Bible study is focused for women and will help participants see her story of love in new ways.

4. Our Christian Responses to Blessings and Challenges, led and hosted by Nathan and Jenny Schmiege, will be at 6:00pm every other Wednesday in their home (N1166 Shore Dr. Marinette). We always need God's guidance and the reassurance that He loves us, especially when we face difficult challenges. We also need to remember that God uses even our most difficult challenges to bless us. But sometimes obvious blessings cause us to stumble just as much as the challenges do. This Bible study leads us to think about how redeemed children of God respond to blessings and challenges in a way that glorifies our Lord.
