PRAYER OF THE DAY

P: Let us pray.

Lord Jesus Christ, by your victory you have broken the power of the evil one. Fill our hearts with joy and peace as we look with hope to that day when every creature in heaven and earth will acclaim you King of kings and Lord of lords to your unending praise and glory; for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Cong: Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Today is Christ the King Sunday. Christ has always been the center and the entire focus of all history. In Daniel's vision the Son of Man came to his Father and was honored as King of Kings. His kingdom covers everybody and all time! There really is no other king—never has been, never will be. What a blessing to be called by the gospel and to live under his gracious rule, to worship and serve him in his kingdom – that's what life is all about!

DANIEL 7:13-14 (EHV)

¹³I kept watching the night visions, and there, in the clouds of heaven, I saw one like a son of man coming. He came to the Ancient of Days, and he was brought before him. ¹⁴To him was given dominion, honor, and a kingdom. All peoples, nations, and languages will worship him. His dominion is an eternal dominion that will not pass away, and his kingdom is one that will not be destroyed.

We continue our worship by singing Psalm 45. As you sing this psalm, think about Jesus’ power and glory and how he will come again to bring us home! The music for this psalm is on page 83 in the front of the hymnal.

EPISTLE LESSON

Jesus is King of the Universe. He has unlimited power and authority. He can do anything and nothing can stop him. So, what did he choose to do? He sacrificed everything. He paid our debt in blood, his own blood. He chose humiliation, agony, and death, to rescue us.

Now he made us into a kingdom. We serve God and glorify his name in everything we say and do.

He’s coming again. Those who rejected him will mourn. Everyone who believes will celebrate! Let’s be ready!

REVELATION 1:4-8 (EHV)

^{4b}Grace to you and peace from him who is, who was, and who is coming, and from the seven spirits that are before his throne,
⁵and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth.

To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his own blood ⁶and made us a kingdom and priests to God his Father—to him be the glory and the power forever. Amen.

⁷Look, he is coming with clouds,
and every eye will see him,
including those who pierced him.
And all the nations of the earth will mourn because of him.
Yes. Amen.

⁸“I am the Alpha and the Omega,” says the Lord God, the one who is, and who was, and who is coming, the Almighty.

VERSE OF THE DAY

I am the Alpha and Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End. Alleluia.

Cong: (sung) Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

GOSPEL LESSON

Our Gospel lesson teaches us not to trust in appearances. While he was on trial, Jesus looked powerless and helpless. In reality, he was winning a galactic, eternal battle for us. Pilate looked important, but, in reality, his only hope was to listen to the King who stood in humility in front of him. The Gospel is divine truth, the only hope for humanity. The Gospel is all about Christ, the King who took our place to rescue us!

JOHN 18:33-37 (EHV)

³³Pilate went back into the Praetorium and summoned Jesus. He asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?”

³⁴Jesus answered, “Are you saying this on your own, or did others tell you about me?”

³⁵Pilate answered, “Am I a Jew? Your own people and chief priests handed you over to me. What have you done?”

³⁶Jesus replied, “My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, my servants would fight so that I would not be handed over to the Jews. But now my kingdom is not from here.”

³⁷“You are a king then?” Pilate asked.

Jesus answered, “I am, as you say, a king. For this reason, I was born, and for this reason I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice.”

Cong: (sung) “Praise be to you, O Christ!”
